"To be or not to be"

International Training Course (4.3) in Finland, Metsakartano

21-27.03.2011

WELCOMING PART- INVITATION!

If you are reading this letter it means that we would like to invite you to participate in the training course that we are planning to organize in the Finnish Youth Center Metsakartano. The training is directed to the youth workers, youth leaders, EVS coordinators and young people intending to work as international volunteers. The aim of the training is to teach youth workers and youth leaders new methods of motivating youth to work as volunteers and presenting the advantages of being a volunteer.

The training course will be based on the sessions conducted by experienced former volunteers who will share their experience and will make the participants more familiar with different aspects of the profession of the volunteer.

If you think you are suitable for our training contact us!
